THE COLLECTOR FULLY SUSTAINED

MRS. GREEN MAY BE FURTHER PUNISHED FOR SMUGGLING.
MATTER WITH COLLECTOR.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 26.— Collector of Customs Stratton received a letter from the Secretary of the Treasury yesterday that his action had been approved in the case of Mrs. N. G.
Green of Portland, who was fined $750 for bringing in dutiable goods without declaring them. Mrs. Green appealed to United States Senator Mitchell and other influential men in an effort to get the action of the Collector rescinded but all without avail. Mrs. Green paid the fine under protest, but refused to sign an acknowledgment of the payment of the fine. The authorities at Washington, however, would not entertain her protest until she signed the acknowledgment. The further punishment of Mrs. Green rests in the hands of the Collector. He states that he will decide the matter today.

Mrs. Green is the wealthy widow of a banker of Portland, and arrived here on the Occidental and Oriental steamer Doris on July 5th. She made a declaration that she had no dutiable goods, but upon a search being made of her trunk several hundred dollars' worth of silks, satsumas and curios were found hidden inside Mrs. Green's dresses. When the Inspector started the search of the trunk Mrs. Green endeavored to prevent any such action by placing her hands on it, but finally removed them.

Deputy Surveyor of the Port Chauncey St. John asked Mrs. Green why she had not declared the goods and she answered that she wished to avoid the payment of duty. "All the women do it," she said, "be a good fellow and let the stuff go through." St. John reported the matter in detail to the Collector and the latter official ordered the goods confiscated and the fine imposed.

JOHN II ESTATE.
Cabby Brown and the Holloway Interests at Odds.

The efforts of Mrs. Irene H. Holloway and others to oust C. A. Brown as manager of the John II Estate, limited, have resulted in an injunction suit by Brown to restrain A. W. Carter, trustee, and Mrs. Holloway from putting in effect some amendments to the by-laws of the corporation, by which Brown would be deprived of power and refused permission to go on a visit to the coast.

An effort was made some time ago to amend the charter of the corporation, by providing that the manager might be removed by a majority vote, instead of by two-thirds, as provided in the original articles. The amendment was disallowed on a protest from Brown, and the other interests then held a meeting and made some amendments to the by-laws, one of which was to provide that if the manager was away from the Territory over three weeks his position should be declared vacant. According to the charter Brown is to remain manager as long as he has a third of the stock, unless removed by a two-thirds vote. The court is asked to restrain Carter and Mrs. Holloway also the minor children, from enforcing the new by-law, and to appoint a guardian ad litem for the children.

AFFECTED BY LOW RATES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 26.—Twenty-one British and two American sailing vessels make up the list of disengaged grain carriers in port, and the captains of some of them say they will stay some time longer in port before accepting the prevailing low rate to Europe. It now stands at 21s. 3d., with a prospect of going as low as 20s., though when many of the British vessels came to port the rate was up around 26s. These vessels, or many of them, went to lay up at out-of-the-way places in the harbor, to wait for better rates, but have met with disappointment, besides being put to extra expense in maintaining their ships in idleness. The bounty-fed French vessels have not waited on an uncertainty, but have taken advantage of the best there was in sight and sailed again. According to an authority, the engaged tonnage in port amounts to over 30,000 or less than last year, but the disengaged is 30,000 tons greater.
The tonnage on the way to this port is 35,000 greater than it was at this time last year.
